

Strongly oppose this proposal. It offers nothing but insurance to the ILEC and weakens competition in the last mile of connectivity by imposing a complex, onerous and expensive process on even community based non-profit and volunteer providers of such connectivity. This very unfortunate proposal will further entrench the ILEC at the expense of all competitors while simultaneously increasing the cost to the consumer and delivering no discernable benefit.